My name is Boris. I'll tell you about a wonderful holiday that I had last summer at the seaside. My parents took me to the Black Sea in July. It was a lovely place. We stayed in a small but nice hotel not far from the beach. The Sea is called Black, but it was very-very blue. The weather was very hot, and it was a pleasure to swim. I am not a very good swimmer, so my father taught me. We spent two or three hours on the beach, then we had lunch and in the afternoon we went up to the mountains. The views were beautiful, and we took a lot of pictures.

One day we rented a boat and went to a small island. We caught some fish and cooked it over a fire. I don't like fish much, but that one was very tasty. We also had some sandwiches and water. It was the happiest day.

In the evening we walked in the park or played board games in our room. Dad told us a lot of horror stories, but I was not afraid. Mum read some good poems to us. I don't know why, but they made me very sad.
